Port Waratah welcomes Terminal 4 PAC announcements

Port Waratah Coal Services has welcomed the announcement of the Planning Assessment Commission (PAC) Panel and Public Hearing dates today.

The PAC Panel will undertake an independent review of the Project's Environmental Assessment and related submissions and reports.

The three members of the PAC panel, Paul Forward, Brian Gilligan, Joe Woodward will hold public hearings in Newcastle on 26th August 2014.

"We welcome this next step forward in the process," said Port Waratah General Manager Development, Terry Tynan.

"The six-weeks' notice period for public hearings is another sign that this Project is being submitted to a rigorous assessment process, which to date has included significant input from the local community and other stakeholders," said Mr Tynan.

The Public Hearings are facilitated by the PAC.

More details can be found on their website: pac.nsw.gov.au.
